

CITIZEN OF MONTH . . . Jerry Hay (left), marketing manager of Great Lakes Properties, Inc., presents the Citizen-of-the-Month award to Lloyd Carr. Carr accepted the award on behalf of the Empty Saddle Club of Rolling Hills, which was named December Citizen-of-the-Month for their group activity in rebuilding the home of their caretaker after it was gutted by fire. The new home will be ready soon for occupancy.

School Chief Indicates He'll Seek Senate Seat

Capitol News Service
SACRAMENTO — Dr. Max Rafferty, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, said it "looks like" he'll challenge U. S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel in the Republican primary election next June. "I had said that we'd run if we had enough money to carry on a respectable campaign," Rafferty said. "We now seem assured of sufficient funds. We've had a nationwide subscription that has been very successful."

This likely will be about as definite as Rafferty will become on his candidacy until filing time next March. There are disadvantages to an elected official, if he announces his candidacy for re-election to another office too early.

"FOR ONE thing, all statements of the candidate then are taken as political ones and he finds exposure in the press and on television more difficult to receive," Rafferty said several weeks ago that, if he decided not to run against Kuchel, he would announce this early in January to give the party plenty of notice. However, Rafferty said that, if he decided to run, there would be a "sepulchral silence."

RAFFERTY'S present position as the chief education officer in state government is a non-partisan one. He won an upset victory in 1962, beating a candidate with the solid backing of the Democratic administration, the Board of Education, and most of the education groups in the state. In 1966, Rafferty handily won reelection in the primary election.

Youngsters Will Stage Fairy Tale

Subtle humor and the special magic of the Mother Goose rhymes will blend when the Redondo Beach Youth Theatre presents "The Strange Case of Mother Goose." The play will be staged at 8 p.m. at the Perry Recreation Center, 2301 Grant Ave., Redondo Beach. Under the direction of Alice Thames, the city-sponsored theater group began production of the play after more than 200 local youngsters between the ages of 9 and 18 turned out to offer their dramatic and technical talents. "Sleeping Beauty" is next on the agenda for the Youth Theatre and will be presented early next year. Actors and members of the ballet classes sponsored by the city will be combined for the fairy tale presentation.
